- 6.4 The Client unreservedly acknowledges and accepts that, regardless of any information which may be offered by the Company, the value of any investment in Financial Instruments may fluctuate downwards or upwards and it is even probable that the investment may become of no value. The Client also unreservedly acknowledges and accepts that the price and value of Financial Instruments depends on fluctuations in the financial markets which are outside the Company's control.
- 6.5 The Client declares and warrants that he/she has read, understood, and accepts the following:
- i. information on the previous performance of a Financial Instrument does not guarantee its current and/or future performance. The use of historical data does not constitute a binding or safe forecast as to the corresponding future performance of the Financial Instruments to which the information refers;
 - ii. some Financial Instruments may not become immediately liquid as a result e.g. of reduced demand and the Client may not be in a position to sell them or easily obtain information on the value of these Financial Instruments or the extent of the associated risks;
 - iii. when a Financial Instrument is traded in a currency other than the currency of the Client's country of residence, any changes in the exchange rates may have a negative effect on its value, price and performance.
 - iv. the Financial Instrument on foreign markets may entail risks different to the usual risks of the markets in the Client's country of residence. In some cases, these risks may be greater. The prospect of profit or loss from transactions on foreign markets is also affected by exchange rate fluctuations.

v. a derivative financial instrument may be a non-delivery spot transaction giving an opportunity to make profit or loss on changes in currency rates, commodity or indices.

vi. the value of the derivative financial instrument may be directly affected by the price of the security or any other underlying asset which is the object of the acquisition.

vii. the Client must not purchase a derivative financial instrument unless he/she is willing to accept the risk of losing entirely all the money which he/she has invested and also any additional commissions and other expenses incurred.

6.6 The preceding paragraph does not constitute investment advice based on the Client's personal circumstances, nor is it a recommendation to enter into any of this Agreement or invest in any Financial Instrument. Where the Client is unclear as to the meaning of any of the above disclosures or warnings, he/she is strongly recommended to seek independent legal or financial advice.

6.7 The Client acknowledges and accepts that there may be other risks than those mentioned in paragraph 6. The Client acknowledges and accepts that he/she has read and understood Company's Risk Disclosure Notice (Appendix 5) which was provided to him/her during the Account opening process, and which is available on the Company's website.

7 NASDAQ GLOBAL DATA

7.1 The Company is the official market data distributor under the NASDAQ QMX Global Subscriber Agreement and an official vendor for the data per the UTP Plan Subscriber Agreement. The Company and/or its Affiliates have the right to retransmit the above market data to their Clients, including delayed market data. Thus, by entering the Agreement with us, the Client becomes a subscriber to:

- a) the NASDAQ QMX Global Subscriber Agreement and accepts and agrees with its terms, as specified in Appendix 10.1, and
- b) the UTP Plan Subscriber Agreement and accepts and agrees with its terms, as specified in Appendix 10.2.

7.2 The Client, as a subscriber, receives market data per the Company's Fee Schedule:
- by default – 15 min delayed market data Level 1;
- by request – real-time market data Level 1.

7.3 The Company will charge you for access to the real-time market data. Please refer to the Fee schedule in Appendix 6, which we can change unilaterally from time to time under the terms of this Agreement.

7.4 To activate paid services concerning access to real-time market data, you shall submit Request on market data subscription in the Secure Client Portal. As soon we approve your request, we provide you access to your subscription, given that you ensure the amount of funds in your Account necessary to pay the fee.

Two types of subscriptions are available to choose from: (i) 1-month subscription, which will be ceased automatically at the EOD of the last day of the month, in which the subscription was initiated; (ii) indefinite period subscription, that will be renewed automatically every month, unless the client submits the request on subscription termination or failed to insure the amount of funds necessary to deduct the due fee.

7.5. The Company and its Affiliates shall not be liable to Clients for any damages due to temporary interruption, interruption of transmission, or incompleteness and/or inaccuracy of the above-mentioned market data in this paragraph 7.

7.6. The Company will charge the Client's Account in the amount of due fee for the real-time data subscription in the last working day of the previous month. If the Client refuse from using data any day and time after his/her Account will be charged with the applicable fee, this fee will not be subject of refund.

7.7. The Client may refuse from using the payable real-time market data any day under its sole discretion. To cease the use of data, the Client should select "off" on the page with the Request on Market data subscription in the Secure Client Portal.

7A NYSE MARKET DATA

- 7A.1 The Company is the official market data distributor concerning market data relating to securities admitted to dealings on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"). The Company and/or its Affiliates have the right to retransmit such market data to the Company's Clients in accordance with applicable agreements with the relevant exchanges and market data providers.
- 7A.2 By entering into this Agreement with us, the Retail Client becomes a subscriber to the NYSE market data and accepts and agrees to the terms of the Agreement for Market Data Display Services (Nonprofessional Subscriber Status), as specified in Appendix 10.3.
- 7A.3 The Company may charge the Client for access to the NYSE market data. Please refer to the Fee Schedule in Appendix 6, which the Company may change unilaterally from time to time under the terms of this Agreement.
- 7A.4 The Company and/or its Affiliates shall not be liable to Clients for any damages due to temporary interruption, interruption of transmission, incompleteness and/or inaccuracy of the NYSE market data.
- 7A.5 Access to the NYSE market data may be subject to additional conditions and technical procedures established by the Company and/or the relevant market data providers, as described in Appendix 10.3.

8 CQG ORS AND GLOBAL DATA (combined CQG Services)

- 8.1 We are the official distributor of CQG services under the CQG Order Routing Service Broker Agreement. The Company and/or its Affiliates provide Company's Clients with access to the CQG services.
- 8.2 Access to the CQG services is provided under the CQG Global Agreement (Appendix 13), and by entering the Agreement with us, the Client accepts and agrees with CQG Global Agreement terms. The clients shall enable CQG services by submitting relevant Instructions in the Secure Client Portal.
- 8.3 We will charge you for the CQG services according to the fee schedule in Appendix 6, which we can change unilaterally from time to time under the terms of this Agreement. This clause shall be effective at the Client's first access to the CQG Market Data and/or to the ORS
- 8.4 Please refer to Appendix 13, where the Company sets the procedure for accessing the CQG services and describes and regulates the mechanism for its use.
- 8.5 The Company and/or its Affiliates shall not be liable to Clients for any damages due to temporary interruption, interruption of transmission, incompleteness and/or inaccuracy of the CQG services.

9 OPRA DATA

- 9.1 The Company is the official market data Distributor concerning current options, last sale and quotation information and related information (the "OPRA Data") provided by the Options Price Reporting Authority ("OPRA"). The Company and/or its Affiliates have the right to retransmit the OPRA Data to Company's Clients.
- 9.2 Thus, by entering this Agreement with us, the Client becomes a subscriber under the Options Price Reporting Authority Subscriber Agreement and accepts and agrees with its terms specified in Appendix 18.
- 9.3 The Company may charge you for access to the OPRA Data. Please refer to the fee schedule in Appendix 6, which we can change unilaterally from time to time under the terms of this Agreement.
- 9.4 The Company an/or its Affiliates shall not be liable to Clients for damages due to temporary interruption, interruption of transmission, incompleteness and/or inaccuracy of OPRA Data.
- 9.5 The Company explicitly states and by accepting this Agreement, the Client explicitly agrees that the Client`s access to the market data (either under either paragraph

FREEDOM 24

7, 8, or 9 above) might and will be limited or even completely ceased, while the Client is attempting to get the access from the IP-address registered on the territory or the state affected by the sanctions, that the Company is obliged to respect.

- 9.6 The above rule applies to all Clients regardless of any other factors (payments for services done, signed agreements etc.). If the Client is in doubt whether the particular country or territory is under any restrictions, the Clients may request for clarifications by the means of communications envisaged by this Agreement.

10 ELECTRONIC TRADING

- 10.1 The Company shall provide the Client with the facility (access codes) to enter into Transactions or carry on dealings with the Company via an internet website or through some other electronic medium (Company's Electronic Systems).
- 10.2 The Client will only be entitled to access Company's Electronic Systems and enter into Transactions via Company's Electronic Systems for his/her own internal business use on a non-exclusive, non-transferable basis.
- 10.3 All rights and interests and all intellectual property rights (including, without limitation, all trademarks and trade names in or relating to the Company) are owned by the Company or Company's suppliers, and are being used by the Company under license, and will remain Company's property or that of Company's suppliers at all times. The Client will have no right or interest in those intellectual property rights other than the right to access Company's Electronic Systems and to use the Services provided via the Company's Electronic Systems. The Company reserves the right to effect any such changes and/or any substitution of all or any part of its Electronic Systems at any time, and in any manner, as it might deem fit in its exclusive discretion, and without notice to the Client.
- 10.4 The Client may only download any content of Company's Electronic Systems (Content) in order to use it for his/her designated purpose. The Client will treat all Content as confidential. The Client may not republish, distribute, reproduce, or disclose to any person any of the Content in any form without Company's prior written consent.
- 10.5 The Company may make available to the Client the ability to enter into Transactions through Company's Electronic Systems. Any Content that the Company includes on Company's Electronic Systems in respect of a Transaction does not constitute an offer to the Client that the Company will enter into a Transaction on the terms set out. The Company may amend that Content at any time in Company's sole discretion, including, without limitation, after the Client has submitted to the Company a firm indication of interest or other instruction indicating that he/she wishes to proceed with a Transaction.
- 10.6 The Client acknowledges that electronic communications can be subject to delay and/or corruption and that Content of Company's Electronic Systems may not be provided in real time or updated.
- 10.7 The Client undertakes to take the necessary precautions to ensure the confidentiality of all information, including, but not limited to, the Client's Electronic Systems access codes, user ID, portfolio details, transaction activities, Account balances, as well as all other information and all orders.
- 10.8 The Client shall be personally liable for all Orders given through and under his/her access codes and any such Orders received by the Company shall be deemed to have been received by the Client. Where a third person is assigned as an authorised representative to act on behalf of the Client, the Client shall be personally liable for all Orders given through and under access codes given by the Company to that representative.
- 10.9 The Company reserves the right to reject any Orders transmitted to the Company through any means other than the Company's predetermined Electronic Systems.
- 10.10 The Client undertakes to notify the Company immediately if it comes to his/her attention that Client's Electronic Systems access codes are being used unauthorised. The Client accepts that the Company is unable to identify any instances when a person, other than the Client or his/her authorised representative, is logging-in the Company's Electronic Systems without the Client's express consent.

- 10.11 The Company shall bear no liability if third persons gain access to information, including electronic addresses, electronic communication and personal data, transmitted between the Client and the Company or any other party, by use of the Internet or other network communication facilities, or any other electronic means.
- 10.12 To the extent permitted by law:
- i. the Company excludes any conditions, warranties and representations, express or implied, statutory or otherwise as to condition, satisfactory quality, performance, fitness for purpose or otherwise regarding the Company's Electronic Systems;
 - ii. the Company will not be liable for any loss, liability or cost (including consequential loss) suffered or incurred by the Client as a result of instructions given, or any other communications being made, via the internet;
 - iii. the Client will be solely responsible for all orders, and the accuracy of all information, sent via the internet using Client's access codes or any personal identification issued to the Client; and
 - iv. the Company is not liable for any damage or loss that may be caused to any equipment or software due to any viruses, defects or malfunctions in connection with the access to or use of the Company's Electronic Systems.
- 10.13 Unless otherwise indicated:
- i. any Company's Electronic Systems will not be targeted at the residents of any particular country and will not be intended for distribution to, or use by, any person in any jurisdiction or country where that distribution or use would be contrary to local law or regulation;
 - ii. no Services will be available, and offering circulars or other information in respect of them will not be distributed, to persons resident in any country or jurisdiction where that offering or distribution would be contrary to local law or regulation or which would subject the Company to any registration or licensing requirement within that jurisdiction;
 - iii. no action has been or will be taken by the Company in any jurisdiction that would permit a public offering of any Financial Instruments described on the Company's Electronic Systems. In particular, the Company is not a registered broker-dealer or an investment adviser in the United States, and the Company does not offer any services of a registered broker-dealer or investment advisor in the United States nor does it offers any services to persons in the United States.
- 10.14 The Company shall maintain its Electronic Systems in such a manner as to ensure its efficient and effective operation. To this respect the Company may be required to affect maintenance, replacements, updates, upgrades, fixes and patches to its Electronic Systems. Such actions may cause the Company's Electronic Systems to be inaccessible to the Client for a period of time. The Company bears no liability for any damages or losses, including financial losses, to the Client caused by any action described herein or by any unavailability of, or interruption to the normal operation, of the Company's Electronic Systems.
- 10.15 The Company shall have the right to suspend or terminate the Client's access to Company's Electronic Systems if, in the Company's discretion acting reasonably, the Client (a) fails to perform its payment obligations in respect of any Company's Electronic Systems or the connection has been used by the Client in such a way that it adversely affects the Company or any third party, or (b) the Client has not used Verified Device in accordance with the Company's Device Authentication Policy, or (c) the Client has been used other than in compliance with the provisions hereof.
- 10.16 The Client acknowledges and accepts Electronic Trading and Order Routing Systems Disclosure Statement provided on the Company website.

11 CLIENT'S ORDERS AND INSTRUCTIONS

- 11.1 The Client understands and acknowledges and gives his/her express consent to the Company to execute or receive and transmit for execution Client's orders outside of a regulated market or multilateral trading facility (MTF).
- 11.2 The Client may give instructions to the Company in
- (a) writing and duly signed,
 - (b) by electronic means or
 - (c) verbally, by telephone or in person provided that the Company is satisfied, at its absolute discretion, of the caller's/Client's identity and clarity of instructions. The Company may refuse the Client the execution of Transactions in case of lack or clarify or if the instructions and do not include essential operations such as opening position, closing position, changing or removing Orders.
- 11.3 In case of an Order received by the Company by means other than through the Electronic Trading Platform, the Order may be transmitted by the Company to the Electronic Trading Platform and processed as if it was received by the Client through the Electronic Trading Platform.
- 11.4 It should be noted that trading of certain Financial Instruments occurs during specific timeframes. The Client is responsible to regularly visit the "Pricing and Rates" page in the Company's website of such instruments for further details, before trading.
- 11.5 In the absence of any other agreement between the Company and the Client, the Company will act on any instruction which it reasonably believes to have been given, or purporting to have been given by the Client or any person authorised on Client's behalf, without enquiring as to the genuineness, authority or identity of the person giving or purporting to give such instructions.
- 11.6 The Client must ensure that any instructions given to the Company is clear and intelligible. If the Client does not provide such instructions promptly, clearly and in an intelligible form, the Company may, at its absolute discretion, ask the Client to confirm the instruction in writing, in such form as the Company may request, before it acts on it, or take such other steps at Client's cost as the Company considers necessary or desirable for its own or Client protection, or take no action on Client's instructions. The Company is not obliged to accept instructions to enter into a Transaction unless it is required to do so by any Applicable Regulations. If the Company declines to enter into a Transaction, it is not obliged to give a reason.
- 11.7 The Client acknowledges and agrees that the Company shall be entitled to record all communications between the Client and the Company or any representative thereof and maintain such records at its discretion and without further notice (unless otherwise provided by Applicable Regulations).
- 11.8 The Company reserves the right, at its absolute discretion to confirm in any manner that it may determine the instruction and/or Orders and/or communications sent through the Electronic Trading Platform. By entering into this Agreement, the Client accepts the risk of misinterpretation and/or mistakes in the instructions and/or Orders through the Electronic Trading Platform, regardless of how they have been caused, including but not limited to, technical or mechanical reasons.
- 11.9 The Client has the right, at his own risk, to use a Power of Attorney to authorize a third person (representative) to act on behalf of the Client in all business relationships with the Company as defined in this Agreement provided that:
- a) the Client has informed the Company in writing in such a manner as the Company may at any time determine,
 - b) the authorized person has been approved by the Company,
 - c) that both the Client and the authorized person have fulfilled such conditions, including the execution of a such document, that the Company may at any time and at its discretion determine.
- Unless the Company receives a written notification from the Client for the termination of such representative authorisation, in such a manner as the Company may at any time determine, the Company may continue accepting instructions and/or Orders given by the such representative on behalf of the Client, and the Client shall recognise such Orders as valid and binding. The written notification by the Client for the termination of the authorisation of the representative must be received by the Company with at least 2 (two) Business days' prior notice.

The Company reserves the right at its discretion and without notice to the Client, to refuse to accept instructions from any authorized person and to consider the appointment of any such authorized person as terminated. Furthermore, the Company may, at any time and at its discretion, reject any existing and previously accepted power of attorney between the Client and any authorised representative, and may reverse any relevant Transactions and restore the affected Trading Accounts' Balance.

- 11.10 Once given, instructions may only be withdrawn or amended with Company's consent. The Company can only cancel Client's instructions if the Company has not already acted upon them. If, after instructions are received, the Company reasonably believes that it is not practicable to act on them within a reasonable time, or the Company reasonably believes that it is in Client's best interest not to act on such instructions, the Company may defer acting upon those instructions until it is in Company's reasonable opinion, practicable (or in Client's best interest) to do so, or notify the Client that the Company declines to act upon such instructions.

Any type of order, as described in Company's Best Execution Policy which is unavailable through the Electronic Trading Platform will be automatically rejected by the Company.

The status of the Orders is always shown on the Electronic Trading Platform. In the event that access to the Electronic Trading Platform is not possible, the Client may contact the Company by telephone and request the status of any of his/her pending Orders.

The Company will not be liable for any losses resulting from any delay or inaccuracy in executing Client's instructions, nor in deferring acting or refusal to act.

- 11.11 The Company shall not be liable for any loss, expense, cost or liability (including consequential loss) suffered or incurred by the Client as a result of instructions being given, or any other communications being made via the Member Area of the Company's Electronic System. The Client will be solely responsible for all orders, and for the accuracy of all information, sent via such electronic media using Client's name or personal identification number. The Company shall not be held responsible for delays or inaccuracies in the transmission of any instruction or other information or the execution of orders due to any cause whatsoever beyond the reasonable control of the Company.
- 11.12 The Client's orders are executed at the "BID"/"ASK" prices which the Client can see in the Electronic Trading Platform, as applicable. The Client places his/her order at the prices he/she sees on his/her Client terminal and the execution process is initiated. Normally the transaction is executed at the prices the Client can see on his/her Client terminal. Due to the high volatility of the markets as well as the internet connectivity between the Client terminal and the server, the prices requested by the Client and the current market price may change, during the confirmation process.
- 11.13 In case of force-majeure, hacker attacks or other illegal actions against the Electronic Trading Platform or the equipment of the Company, and also in case of a suspension of trade in the financial markets concerning Financial Instruments, the Company may suspend, freeze or close the Client's positions and request the revision of the executed Transactions.
- 11.14 To the extent permitted by Applicable Regulation, the Client agrees that the Company will not owe the Client any duties of best execution in respect of regulated investment services falling outside the scope of MiFID II.
- 11.15 There are a number of situations where the Company will not owe the Client any duties of best execution. These include without limitation the following scenario.

When the Client gives specific instructions to the Company and the Company executes Client's order in accordance with those instructions, the Company will have discharged its duties to the extent of those instructions.

- 11.16 When executing orders on the Client's behalf the Company will do this in accordance with its Best Execution Policy as amended from time to time to which the Client consent. Company's Best Execution Policy is presented together with this Agreement. The latest version of the Company's Best Execution Policy will also be available on the Company website or from Client's usual contact with the Company.
- 11.17 Considering the volume of the Client's order and the current market conditions, the Company reserves the right to proceed with partial execution of the Order.
- 11.18 Trading operations using additional functions/plugin-ins made available through the Electronic Trading Platform such as "Trailing Stop" or "Expert Adviser" are executed completely and exclusively under the Client's responsibility and at his/her own risk, as they depend directly upon the Client, and the Company bears no responsibility whatsoever. The Company reserves the right to accept or reject at its own discretion the use of additional functions/plugin-ins of the Electronic Trading Platform and in case these additional functions/plugin-ins affect the reliability and/or smooth operation and/or orderly of the Company's Electronic Trading Platform to immediately terminate by way of written notice the relationship with the Client.
- 11.19 Disposal of Illiquid or Non-Tradable Securities

The Client may submit an Instruction to the Company, through the Member Area or other communication channel accepted by the Company, requesting the disposal of certain Securities held in the Client's Account where:

- (a) no active market for such Securities exists;
- (b) the market price of such Securities is extremely low (including, without limitation, instruments priced below 0.02 in the currency of the relevant ticker); or
- (c) disposal through a trading venue is economically or operationally impractical due to transaction costs, technical restrictions, or other limitations.

Upon receipt of such Instruction, the Company may, but shall not be obliged to, arrange the sale of all Securities held in the relevant position as a single lot to a counterparty located by the Company for a purchase price equal to the minimum monetary unit of the currency of the relevant ticker (0.01).

Such counterparty may include an affiliated or technical counterparty designated by the Company for the purpose of facilitating such disposal.

By submitting such Instruction, the Client acknowledges and agrees that:

- (i) the sale price may be substantially lower than the historical acquisition price or any previous market price of the Securities;
- (ii) the disposal is performed solely at the Client's request and initiative;
- (iii) upon execution of the transaction the Client shall have no further claim, right, title or interest in respect of the disposed Securities;
- (iv) all rights attached to the Securities, including any coupon, dividend or other income payable by the issuer (if applicable), shall pass to the purchasing counterparty from the date of execution of the transaction.

The Client acknowledges that such Instruction constitutes an explicit request to execute the transaction outside a trading venue.

The requested disposal shall be irrevocable once executed.

The Client assumes all risks associated with any tax consequences of such disposal and agrees to hold the Company harmless from any claims, losses, liabilities or obligations arising out of or in connection with the execution of such Instruction.

The Company shall not be obliged to verify whether disposal through a trading venue would have been possible at the time the Instruction was submitted.

11.20 Auto Invest Instructions (Recurring Orders)

11.20.1 The Client may provide the Company with a standing instruction (the "Auto Invest Instruction") to execute recurring Transactions in Financial Instruments on the Client's behalf at predefined intervals (weekly or monthly), without the need for further confirmation at the time of each execution.

11.20.2 The Auto Invest Instruction shall include, at a minimum:

- (a) the Financial Instrument;
 - (b) the investment amount or quantity;
 - (c) the execution frequency;
- and any additional parameters as may be required by the Company.

11.20.3 The Client acknowledges and agrees that each execution under an Auto Invest Instruction constitutes a separate Transaction and Trade Order, deemed to have been validly submitted by the Client at the time the Auto Invest Instruction was initially confirmed.

11.20.4 The Company shall execute such Transactions at its discretion in accordance with market conditions, applicable trading hours, and its Best Execution Policy. The exact execution date and time may vary from the scheduled date, including, but not limited to, situations where the scheduled date falls outside trading hours, on weekends, or on public holidays. In such cases, the Transaction will be executed at the earliest available opportunity once normal trading resumes.

11.20.5 The Client acknowledges that:

- (a) no prior notification or confirmation will be required at the time of execution;
- (b) market conditions (including price fluctuations and liquidity) may affect execution outcomes;

11.20.6 Funding dependency

Execution of Auto Invest Instructions is conditional upon the availability of sufficient funds in the Client's Account.

Where funds are insufficient:

- (a) the Company shall attempt to fund the Client's Account using the Auto Top-Up functionality where required for execution;
- (b) failing such funding, the Company may, at its discretion, reject or skip the execution.

The Client acknowledges that funding and Transaction execution are separate processes and that successful funding does not guarantee execution of the Transaction.

11.20.7 Foreign exchange

Where the currency of the Client's Account differs from the currency of the Transaction, the Client authorises the Company to perform automatic foreign exchange conversion in accordance with paragraph 24 without prior notice.

11.20.8 Client responsibility

The Client remains fully responsible for monitoring the status of Auto Invest Instructions, ensuring sufficient funding, and managing or cancelling such instructions via the Member Area.

11.20.9 Right to cancel/modify

The Client may modify or cancel an Auto Invest Instruction at any time via the Electronic Trading Platform. Changes may not apply to already scheduled executions.

11.20.10 No advice

Auto Invest Instructions do not constitute portfolio management or investment advice unless explicitly agreed otherwise under a separate agreement.

12 REFUSAL TO EXECUTE ORDERS

12.1 The Company reserves the right, at any time during its relationship with the Client and at its own discretion, to refuse the provision of any investment or ancillary service, including but not limited to the execution of instructions for the purpose of trading in Financial Instruments, without giving any notice and/or explanation to the Client.

Among the cases that the Company is entitled to do so are the following:

- i. if the Client does not have the required funds deposited in the Company's Client trading Account;
- ii. whenever the Company is of the opinion that the order violates the smooth operation or the reliability of the Company's Electronic Trading Platform;
- iii. whenever the Company is of the opinion that the order aims at manipulating the market of the specific Financial Instrument;
- iv. whenever the Company is of the opinion that the order is a result of the use of inside confidential information;
- v. whenever the Company is of the opinion that the order aims to legalize the proceeds from illegal acts or activities.

12.2 The Company reserves the right to refuse the execution of a pending order and/or modify the opening/closing price of an order in case a technical or any other type of error occurs.

12.3 The Client accepts that any refusal by the Company to execute any of his/her Orders shall be without prejudice and not affect any obligation which the Client may have towards the Company or any right which the Company may have against the Client or his assets.

13 MARGIN

13.1 In order to open a transaction and keep such transaction open, Client shall provide to the Company and maintain such amount of money in respect of and as security for Client's actual or future obligations or liabilities to the Company ("Liabilities") in such amounts and in such forms as the Company, at sole discretion, may require ("Margin"). Different instruments may have different Margin requirements as shall be determined by the Company from time to time.

13.2 Margin Transactions are carried out in accordance with these General Terms and the Margin Transaction Rules, as set out in Appendix 3 to these General Terms.

13.3 Trading using leverage can result in losses in excess of the deposits that the Client hold. To the extent of Client trades with leverage, the Client will magnify the Client's gains and losses. Small price changes in the underlying asset can result in significant losses or gains. However, the Company provides all Clients with negative balance protection. This means that the Client's aggregate liability for all assets relating to Client Account is limited to the funds in the Account.

- 13.4 Additionally, various jurisdictions and/or Client's classifications may require the imposition of maximum leverage requirements and/or minimum Margin requirements on Accounts maintained by their residents. To comply with such regulatory obligations, the Company reserves the right to limit and/or restrict the leverage ratio and/or increase the Margin requirement applicable to such Accounts. To the extent, any transactions were executed at a leverage ratio exceeding such limitations and/or to the extent the overall Margin requirement applicable to such users has not been met when due, the Company reserve the right to close any or all of Client's Open Positions without further notice whether at a loss or a profit and liquidity Client's Account. The Company may close out one or more of Client's Open Positions according to the procedure stated in the Margin Transaction Rules.
- 13.5 Without derogating from the generality of the above, the Company is required to limit the amount of leverage that Retail Clients can apply to certain transactions, depending on where those Clients are residents. The Company sets out the relevant leverage limits relating to Retail Client transactions on the Company's website. Professional Clients are not be subject to prescribed leverage limits.
- 13.6 The Company may change Margin requirements at any time. Any requirement for Margin must be satisfied in such currency and within such time as may be specified by the Company (in sole discretion) or, if none is specified, immediately.
- 13.7 The Client is responsible for maintaining appropriate arrangements with the Company at all times for the receipt and communication of information regarding Margin. The Client is aware and acknowledge that the Company may require the Client to increase the amount in the Client's Account pursuant to a Margin Call. A Margin Call may be based upon a number of factors, including without limitation, Client's overall positions with the Company, Client's Account size, the number of Open Margin Transactions you have, the volume traded, Client's trade history, and market conditions.
- 13.8 No previous Margin requirements specified by the Company shall preclude increasing the rates of Margin without notice. It is the Client's responsibility to monitor at all times the amount deposited in the Client's Account against the amount of any Margin that may become necessary.
- 13.9 Failure to meet the Margin requirement at any time pursuant to a Margin Call when due may result in the closure of the Client's Open Positions without further notice to the Client whether at a loss or a profit and liquidate the Client's Account.

14 SETTLEMENT OF TRANSACTIONS

- 14.1 The Company shall proceed to a settlement of all transactions upon execution of such transactions. Unless otherwise agreed, the settlement of Transactions shall be in accordance with the normal practice for the Financial Instruments or market concerned.
- 14.2 A statement of Account will be provided by the Company to the Client on a monthly basis, within 5 (five) business days from the end of the previous month. In case no transactions were concluded in the past month, then no statement of Account will be provided.
A statement of Account or certification or confirmation issued by the Company in relation to any transaction or other matter shall be final and binding on the Client, unless the Client file in writing his objection within 2 (two) business days from the receipt of the said statement of Account or certification or confirmation.
- 14.3 The Company is considering its obligations under 14.2 as fulfilled since the Account statement as well as confirmation of any transaction will be available online and via the Company's Electronic Trading Platform. Any objection which the Client may have regarding his/her executed transaction shall be valid only if it is received by the Company in writing within 2 (two) Business Days from the said Transaction.

15 BEST EXECUTION POLICY

- 15.1 The Company takes all reasonable steps to obtain the best possible results for its Clients when executing Client orders in relation to Financial instruments. The Company's "Best Execution Policy" sets out a general overview of how orders are executed as well as several other factors that can affect the execution of a Financial Instrument.
- 15.2 The Company's "Best Execution Policy" forms part of the Client's Agreement with the Company and therefore by entering into this Agreement with the Company the Client also agrees to the terms of the "Best Execution Policy".
- 15.3 The Client acknowledges and accepts (read and understood) the "Best Execution Policy" document, which was provided during the Account opening process, and which is posted on the Company's website.
- 15.4 By entering into this Agreement, the Client shall be deemed to have given his/her express consent to the Company to execute or receive and transmit for execution Client's orders outside of a regulated market or multilateral trading facility ("MTF").

16 CLIENT'S ACCOUNT

- 16.1 The Client shall open an Account with the Company in order to conclude any Transaction involving Financial Instruments offered by the Company, as specified in this Agreement.
- 16.2 The Client does not intend to use this Account for payment to third parties.
- 16.3 In order to open an Account, the Client will need to fill out Company's online Application form, sign Letter of Application to the General Terms and provide all required documents as described on the Company's website in the Member Area section.
- 16.4 When the Client has provided the documents indicated in paragraph 16.3 above, the Company shall send the Client a written confirmation about his acceptance. Where the Client failed to provide such documents to the Company, or the documents do not include requisite information, the Company has the right to refuse the Client in opening and maintaining of the Account. In case of refusal, the Company shall notify the Client in writing.
- 16.5 This Agreement shall become effective and the Client's Account be activated upon the first funding of the Client's Account, provided the Company has sent the Client a written confirmation for his acceptance as required in paragraph 16.4 above.
- 16.6 It is the Client's sole responsibility to inform the Company as to whether information concerning the Client's Account Transactions should be reported to Client's employer, including its compliance officer, and as to whether contract notes and statements of Client's Account should be sent to that compliance officer or to any other person authorized by Client's employer to receive such information.
- 16.7 The Company reserves the right to classify and treat the Client's Account as dormant if it has a zero credit balance and/or has not been funded over a period of three (3) calendar months. During that period, no trading or funding activities have been carried out with the Account by or on the Account holder's instructions. The procedure and method considered for classifying the Client's Accounts as dormant, as well as the steps to be taken by the Client and the Company to recognize, reactivate and/or terminate the dormant accounts are set out in "Dormant Account Policy", posted on the Company's website. The Company's "Dormant Account Policy" forms part of the Client's Agreement with the Company and therefore by entering into this Agreement with the Company the Client also agrees to the terms of the "Dormant Account Policy".

17 OMNIBUS ACCOUNT

- 17.1 Where the Client maintains an Omnibus Account structure and/or executes transactions on behalf of one or more Underlying Clients, the relationship between the Company and the Client shall be governed by these General Terms as supplemented by the Appendix 20 – Omnibus Accounts for EU, which shall form an integral part of these General Terms.

- 17.2 In the event of any inconsistency between these General Terms and the Appendix 20, the provisions of the Appendix 20 shall prevail to the extent such inconsistency relates to omnibus account structures and Underlying Clients.
- 17.3 The Client acknowledges and agrees that, where it operates an omnibus account with the Company for the purpose of holding financial instruments or funds on behalf of multiple Underlying Clients or beneficial owners, the Client shall be solely and fully responsible, in its capacity as the owner of record and counterparty of the Company, for all obligations, liabilities, claims, taxes, charges or other consequences arising from or in connection with the ownership, custody, trading, or any corporate action relating to the financial instruments held in such account, regardless of the time such obligations arise, their nature, or any internal arrangements between the Client and its Underlying Clients.
- 17.4 The Company shall have no direct relationship with, or responsibility toward, the Client's Underlying Clients. The Client assumes full responsibility for ensuring that all such persons are duly identified, compliant with applicable legal, regulatory and tax requirements, and that all necessary information or documentation (including for tax relief or reporting purposes) is properly collected, maintained and provided to the Company upon request or as required by applicable law. Any failure to do so may result in the application of standard withholding rates, reporting consequences, or other measures, and the Company shall not be held liable for any resulting loss, tax leakage, or penalty.
- 17.5 The Company shall be entitled to exercise all rights, remedies and discretionary powers provided under these General Terms and the Appendix 20 – EU Omnibus Accounts, including, without limitation, the right to:
- (a) refuse to accept or execute instructions or transactions;
 - (b) suspend or restrict trading, settlement or withdrawals;
 - (c) request additional information, documentation or confirmations relating to the Client or its Underlying Clients;
 - (d) terminate this Agreement,
- where such measures are, in the Company's reasonable opinion, required to ensure compliance with Applicable Regulations, including AML/CFT, sanctions or market abuse regulations, or to mitigate legal, regulatory, operational or reputational risk.
- 17.6 The Client acknowledges that the Company has no contractual, fiduciary or other obligations towards any Underlying Client and that any measures taken by the Company pursuant to these General Terms or the Appendix 20 may be implemented without reference to, or consent from, any Underlying Client.
- 17.7 Where the Client maintains an omnibus account or executes transactions on behalf of Underlying Clients, the Client shall comply with all applicable market abuse legislation, including Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 on market abuse ("MAR"). The Client acknowledges and agrees that its obligations under MAR apply to all orders, transactions and activities conducted through the Company, including those executed for or on behalf of its Underlying Clients.
- The Client shall establish, maintain and apply adequate policies, procedures and internal controls designed to prevent, detect and report insider dealing, unlawful disclosure of inside information and market manipulation in connection with the use of Omnibus Accounts.
- The Client shall promptly notify the Company if it becomes aware of any order, transaction or behaviour executed through an omnibus account which may constitute or give rise to a suspicion of a breach of MAR, including where such activity relates to an Underlying Client.
- The Client's obligations in respect of market abuse prevention, monitoring and reporting in the context of omnibus accounts are further detailed in the Appendix 20.

18 SAFEGUARDING OF CLIENT'S FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND FUNDS

- 18.1 The Company has various measures in order to safeguard and protect Client's financial instruments and funds. The Company keeps, maintains such records and Accounts as are necessary to distinguish assets held for one Client from assets for any other Client or for the Company itself.
- 18.2 When holding Client's financial instruments and funds on Client's behalf the Company shall take every possible measure to safeguard them against the use of Client's financial instruments and funds for its own Account.
- 18.3 Client's funds will be held by the bank and/or any other institution permitted under Applicable Regulation the Company may select (which may include affiliated companies), in the name of the Client and/or the name of the Company on behalf of the Client in a separate bank Account specially designated as "Client Account".
- 18.4 The Company will maintain separate records in the accounting system of its own funds/assets and funds/assets kept on behalf of Clients.
- 18.5 The Company conducts on regular basis reconciliations between its internal Accounts and those of any third parties by whom those assets are held.
- 18.6 The Company when holding financial instruments belonging to clients, shall make adequate arrangements so as to safeguard Client's ownership rights, especially in the event of the Company's insolvency, and to prevent the use of a client's instruments on own Account except with the client's express consent.
- 18.7 The Company when holding funds belonging to clients, shall make adequate arrangements to safeguard the clients' rights and, except in the case of credit institutions, prevent the use of Client funds for its own account.
- 18.8 The Company has adequate organizational arrangements in order to minimize the risk of the loss or diminution of Client assets or of rights in connection with those rights.
- 18.9 In the case of Omnibus or Correspondent Accounts, the Company shall segregate assets at the level of the Client in accordance with Applicable Regulations. The allocation, internal segregation, reconciliation and record-keeping in respect of Underlying Clients shall be the sole responsibility of the Client, and the Company shall bear no responsibility for any failure by the Client to properly maintain such records.

19 CLIENTS FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND FUNDS HELD BY THIRD PARTY

- 19.1 Where Client's assets are held by a third party on behalf of the Company, the Company informs the Client of this fact and of the responsibility of the Company to the Client, for any acts or omissions of the third party or the consequences for the client of the insolvency of the third party.
The Client has the right to disagree on the use of a specific third party for holding his assets and financial instruments. In case the Client has no objections with the list of third parties used by the Company it shall mean that the Client accepts all the risk arising due to the holding of assets, funds, and financial instruments with third parties. More details can be provided to the Client on any third party upon request.
- 19.2 The Company shall maintain its own books and records (the "Securities Account" and together with the Account - the "Accounts"), where the Company shall enter a record of all Securities purchased, sold, or surrendered upon maturity, and any other transaction conducted by the Company on behalf of the Client pursuant hereto.
- 19.3 The Company is authorized to receive and collect all income and principal with respect to the Portfolio; and to surrender the Securities at maturity or when called for redemption against payment for them.
- 19.4 The Company's books and records shall at all times show that the Client's Securities are part of the Portfolio. All proceeds or income of the Portfolio received or paid to the Company shall be beneficially owned by the Client and shall be held in the Accounts.

- 19.5 The Client may at any time provide written notice request delivery of any cash held in the Client's Account, subject to the Company retaining sufficient assets to comply with prior commitments and being reimbursed for any costs and expenses necessarily incurred in arranging the withdrawal. The cash is transferred to the Client as provided in paragraph 21 of this Agreement.
- 19.6 The Client may at any time upon 3 (three) business days' written notice request delivery of some or the entire Portfolio held in the Securities Account. In such a case or in the event of withdrawal from this Agreement pursuant to paragraph 38, hereof, the Company shall as soon as practicable thereafter transfer all or some of the Portfolio to the Client or its designated nominee, withdrawing cash from the Account sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of such transfer, provided, however, that the Company shall be under no obligation to transfer any Securities where the Company in its sole and reasonable judgment determines that such transfer is forbidden or made impracticable by applicable law, rule or regulation. In the event that transfer of certain Securities is impracticable or impossible, the Company shall so notify the Client and continue to hold such Securities until further Instructions.
- 19.7 The Client agrees that in case that there is no movement on the Client's Account for 12 (twelve) consecutive months the Company may withdraw from this Agreement pursuant to paragraph 38 hereof and terminate the Agreement unilaterally.

20 COLLATERAL

- 20.1 Where the Company receive Client assets (including money) as collateral, margin or under any other security arrangement in connection with Margin Transactions, such arrangements may confer upon the Company, subject to Applicable Regulations, a right to use such Client assets for the purposes of providing Margin Trading and related services to the Clients.

The exercise by the Company of the right to use the Client's Financial Instruments shall be conditional upon the Client having provided their prior express consent in accordance with Article 5(1) of Commission Delegated Directive (EU) 2017/593 by accepting the Statement of Prior Express Consent for the Use of Client Financial Instruments, in the form as set out in Annex to the Margin Transactions Rules in Appendix 3 to these General Terms, made available to the Client in electronic form via the Company's Electronic Trading Platform.

The Client acknowledges and agrees that such express consent is provided separately from, and in addition to, the acceptance of these General Terms and the Margin Transactions Rules, by means of an affirmative action (including, without limitation, ticking the relevant checkbox or equivalent confirmation) on the dedicated consent form presented to the Client when applying for or using Margin Trading services.

In the absence of such prior express consent, the Company shall not be entitled to use the Client's Financial Instruments for the purposes described above and may decline to provide Margin Trading services to the Client.

The Company shall bear its regulatory responsibilities to record and meet its future liabilities to repay such collateral or margin under the Agreement of the arrangements and the transactions. Accordingly, such assets will not be treated as Custody Assets whilst under its control from the time that the Company receives them from the Client to the time that the Company return equivalent assets to the Client.

- 20.2 When Client's Account transactions are in a currency for which the Client does not hold the Account, or closing position results in a negative Account Balance, the Company may credit the Client's Account with the amount enough to cover a negative Balance. The Company will charge the Client interest on such amount at the rate determined by the Company.

21 TRANSFER OF FUNDS

- 21.1 The Company shall inform the Client of the name, address and Account number of the Company's Client Account for transferring funds. It is Client's responsibility to read and understand the information on each payment method provided by the Company, including debit/credit card and Recurring Payments.
- 21.2 The Client shall clearly specify his/her name and all required information, in accordance with international regulations related to the prevention of money laundering and terrorism financing, on the payment document. It is the Company's policy not to accept payments from third parties to be credited to the Client's Account.
- 21.3 Any funds to be sent to the Bank Client's account should only be sent by the Client himself and not by any third party.
- 21.4 Any funds transferred by the Client to the Company's Client Account will be deposited in the Client's Account at the Value date of the received payment and net of any deduction/charges by the transferring bank. The Company must be satisfied that the sender is the Client before making any amount available to the Client's Trading Account, and the Company may, at its discretion, refund/send back the net amount received to the remitter by the same method as received or as otherwise determined by the Company.
- 21.5 The Client is solely and fully responsible for payment details that are given to the Company and the Company accepts no responsibility for the Client's funds, if any payment details are proved to be wrong or lacking. The Company shall not be liable for any funds not deposited directly into the Company's bank accounts.
- 21.6 The Company has the right to refuse the Client's transferred funds in any of the following cases (the list is not exhaustive):
- i. if the funds are transferred by a third party;
 - ii. if the Company has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person who transferred the funds was not a duly authorized person;
 - iii. if the transfer violates Cyprus legislation.
- In any of the above cases, the Company will send back the received funds to the remitter by the same method as they were received, and the Client will suffer the relevant Client's Bank account provider charges.
- 21.7 By accepting this Agreement, the Client gives his/her consent and authorizes the Company to make deposits and withdrawals from the Client Account on the Client's behalf, including but not limited to, for settlement of transactions performed by or on behalf of the Client, for payment of all amounts due by or on behalf of the Client to the Company or any other person.
- 21.8 The Client has the right to withdraw the Available Funds from the Client's Account without closing the said Account.
- 21.9 The Client may at any time providing written notice request to withdraw the Available Funds from the Client's Account and in case of an Available Account Balance the Company shall process the Client's request on the same day that the request to withdraw funds was made, or the next working day if the Client's request is received outside of normal trading hours.
- 21.10 Unless the Parties otherwise agree in writing, any amount payable by the Company to the Client, shall be transferred directly to the Client's personal Account. Fund transfer requests are processed by the Company within the time period specified on the Company's website and the time needed for crediting into the Client's personal Account will depend on the Client's Bank Account provider. The Balance shall be reduced by the transferring amount on the day the transfer request is received. The Company may either decline a withdrawal request if the request is not in accordance with the provisions of this section of the Agreement.

- 21.11 The Company reserves the right to refuse a withdrawal request from the Client with a specific payment method and suggest another payment method where the Client needs to proceed with a new withdrawal request or request further documentation while processing the withdrawal request. If the Company is not satisfied with any documentation provided by or on behalf of the Client, the Company may, at its discretion, reverse the withdrawal transaction and deposit the amount back into the Client's Account.
- 21.12 The Client may withdraw the Available Funds from the Account only either in EUR, USD or GBP currency. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the Available Funds may not be withdrawn or otherwise transferred from the Client's Account in a currency other than EUR, USD or GBP currency¹ and must be withdrawn by converting into either EUR, USD or GBP upon the Client's relevant Instruction or through execution of a relevant spot foreign exchange transaction with or through us. Execution of a Trade Order or applicable Transaction in a currency other than EUR, USD or GBP currency doesn't allow You to withdraw the Available Funds in a currency other than EUR, USD or GBP currency.
- 21.13 During the continuance of transactions with the Company, and until complete settlement of all amounts due at any time by the Client to the Company, the Company shall, without prejudice to any of the Company's rights under the law or this Agreement, have a general preferential lien upon all and/or any of the Client's monies, negotiable instruments and other assets of whatever nature at any time coming into its possessions, custody or power, in respect of and as security for any monies and liabilities which now are, or at any time hereafter may be due or owing by the Client to the Company in any manner whatever whether alone or jointly with any other person(s) and under whatever name, style or firm and whether such liabilities are actual or contingent, direct or collateral. The Company may, at its discretion, from time to time and without the Client's authorization or prior notice, set off any amounts held on behalf and/or to the credit of the Client against any of the Client's obligations towards the Company and/or merge, consolidate or combine any Accounts of the Client with the Company. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company and the Client, this Agreement shall not give rise to rights or credit facilities.
- 21.14 In the event that any amount received in the Client's Bank Account is reversed by the Client's Bank Account provider at any time and for any reason, the Company will immediately reverse the affected deposit from the Client's Trading Account and reserves the right to reverse any other type of Transaction effected after the date of the affected deposit. These actions may result in a negative Balance in all or any of the Client's Trading Account(s) and the Client hereby shall accept such a negative Balance. The Company reserves the right to merge, consolidate or combine any Accounts of the Client with the Company as per paragraph 21.13.
- 21.15 The Client warrants and acknowledges the acceptance (read and understood) of the additional information, including costs and fees, regarding deposits and withdrawals provided for each payment method which are available on the Company's website. The Company reserves the right to amend at its discretion all such costs and fees. Information on such amendments will be made available on the Company's website which the Client must regularly review during the term of this Agreement.
- 21.16 The Client acknowledges that in case the Client's Bank Account is blocked for any given period and for any given reason the Company assumes no responsibility and Client's funds will also be blocked.

¹ Withdrawal of the Available Funds from the Client's Account in a currency other than EUR, USD or GBP may be performed in exceptional cases only by agreement of the Parties. Acceptance and execution of an Instruction for withdrawal can be considered as an agreement between the Parties.

- 21.17 By entering into this Agreement the Client waives any and all rights to receive any interest earned in moneys held in the Bank Clients' Account and consents that the Company shall benefit from any such interest earned to cover the registration, general expenses, charges, fees and interest related to the administration and maintenance of the Clients' Bank Account. These expenses will not be passed to the Client.
- 21.18 By entering into this Agreement, the Client gives his/her consent and authorizes the Company, where applicable, to transfer/hold Client's funds to another authorized broker, where the Client's funds will be located on a segregated Client's bank account. The Client also consents that his/her funds, where applicable, can be deposited in an Omnibus Account.
- 21.19 The Client may set up the Recurring Payments service by setting the payment parameters, including amount, currency, payment card, payment frequency and recurring period, and may modify or cancel these parameters at any time via the Member Area of the Company's Electronic System.
The Recurring Payments functionality will remain in effect until one of the following events occurs:
- (a) cancellation of the Recurring Payment by the Client via the Member Area of the Company's Electronic System;
 - (b) expiration of the linked payment card;
 - (c) revocation or blocking of the linked payment card by the issuing bank.

The Client hereby acknowledges that all linked payment card data is processed exclusively by the Company's authorized payment provider in compliance with the PCI DSS (Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard). The Company does not store full card information on its own servers.

To activate the Recurring Payment service, the Client must confirm consent to automatic debits by checking the relevant box upon setting up functionality in the Member Area of the Company's Electronic System.

- 21.20. By entering into this Agreement, the Client acknowledges and accepts (read and understood) the information about Recurring payments. The Client gives express consent for executing such transactions.
- 21.21 To ensure the integrity and security of financial transactions via our Company, the Client acknowledges and accepts that the Client's Account may be subject to the Company's scrutiny of the Client's economic and investment profile and patterns, which may lead to a higher withdrawal fee (Appendix 6 (Fee Schedule)) applied to the Assets withdrawal if all criteria are met:
- i. At a minimum one of the following conditions applies to the withdrawal:
 - a) Funds withdrawal less than three months after such Funds have been transferred to the Client's Account;
 - b) Securities withdrawal if such securities have been purchased using Funds transferred to the Client's Account less than three months before the said Securities withdrawal;
 - c) Funds withdrawal if such Funds have been obtained by selling Securities transferred to the Client's Account less than three months before the said Funds withdrawal;
 - ii. Abovementioned incoming and outgoing Assets transfers (without change of ownership) that will effect change in the Assets location jurisdiction (exceptions are applied to the transfers between the following jurisdictions: EU, USA, Canada, Switzerland, Norway, Iceland, Monaco, UK, British Islands, Liechtenstein, Australia)

iii. The Asset withdrawal amount is 1000 EUR or higher.

At the same time, the Company may not impose a higher withdrawal fee on withdrawals under this clause if the total amount already paid to the Company within the last six months of the Client's fees is equal to or higher than the calculated higher withdrawal fee concerning the withdrawal under this clause.

21.22 The Client acknowledges that Auto Invest Instructions may require automatic funding through Recurring Payments (Auto Top-Up). The Client must activate such functionality in advance. Failure to do so may result in non-execution of scheduled Transactions.

22 SEPA DEBIT DIRECT

22.1 SEPA Debit Direct – in accordance with the provisions of Directive 2014/65/ EU, by the rules of the SEPA Direct Debit Core Scheme Rulebook and in accordance with these General Terms means the Scheme for making Transactions for the Collection of funds directly from a Bank Account of the Client. The Company is making collections of funds for provided services to the Client in an EEA SEPA.

22.2 To activate SEPA Direct Debit payments in accordance with Appendix 14 hereto, Client must create an order called SEPA Debit Direct in the Client's Personal Account located on the Company's website. This order will be a Mandate-consent of the Client to withdraw funds from his Bank account. All subsequent payments of the Client will be debited by the Company directly from the Client's Bank account.

22.3 Each month, 5 (five) business days prior to SEPA direct debiting, the Company sends an electronic notification of the amount of subsequent debits.

22.4 The client, as the owner of the Bank account has the right to demand the return of the debited funds in accordance with the terms agreed with his Bank. Refunds must be requested within 8 (eight) weeks from the date on which the funds were debited by the Company for payment of services.

22.5 A Refund does not relieve the Client of its responsibility to resolve any issues in respect of the disputed Collection with the Company, nor does the payment of a Refund by the Debtor/Client Bank prejudice the outcome of such a dispute. Issues in respect of any disputes or discussions between the Client and the Company in relation to a Collection are outside the scope of the paragraph.

23 COMPANY'S FEES, COSTS AND CHARGES

23.1 The Company is entitled to receive fees from the Client for any services provided under this Agreement as well as compensation for any expenses it may incur for purposes of this Agreement and the execution of the said Services. The Company is entitled to modify, from time to time, the size, amounts and percentage rates of its fees and expenses for which the Client will be informed accordingly.

23.2 The Client agrees that the Company is entitled to change Client's commissions and fees unilaterally without any consultation or prior consent from the Client.

23.3 The Client shall pay the Company any amount which he/she owes the Company when due in freely transferable, cleared, and available same day funds, in the currency and to the Accounts which the Company specifies, and without making any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding, unless the Client is required to do so by law.

23.4 The Company may deduct its charges from any funds which it holds on Client's behalf. For this purpose, the Company will be entitled to combine or make transfers between any of the Client's Accounts. The Company has the right to close any Open Positions of the Client in order to settle any obligations owned by the Client to the Company.

23.5 The Company will charge the Client interest on any amounts due from the Client to the Company which are not paid when due, at such rate as is reasonably determined by the Company as representing the cost of funding such overdue amount. Interest will accrue on a daily basis. Furthermore, in case the Client fails to make the required deposit within the given deadline the Company may also proceed with the sale of Financial Instruments from Client's Trading Account(s) without further notice to the Client unless otherwise agreed upon by the Company and the Client. The Company will then notify the Client of the effected sale orally, via email or by sending a relevant notification via Company's Electronic Trading Platform.

- 23.6 The Company may deduct or withhold all forms of tax from any payment if obliged to do so under Applicable Regulations. If the Client is required by law to make any deduction or withholding in respect of any payment, the Client agrees to pay such amount to the Company as will result in Company receiving an amount equal to the full amount which would have been received had no deduction or withholding been required. The Company may debit amounts due from any of Client's Accounts.
- 23.7 The Company is not responsible for paying Client's tax obligations in relation to possible income tax or similar taxes imposed on him/her by his/her jurisdiction on profits and/or for trading in Financial Instruments.
- 23.8 The Company shall be entitled to demand that expenses arising from Client relationship such as telephone, courier, and postal expenses in cases where the Client requests hardcopy Account Statements, Trade Confirmations etc. that could have been delivered electronically by the Company, or any other expenses derived without limitation from reminders or legal assistance.
- 23.9 Commissions may be charged either in the form of a percentage of the overall value of the trade or as a fixed amount. Therefore, the Client needs to ensure that he/she understands the amount that the percentage amounts to.
- 23.10 In the case of financing fees, the value of opened positions in some types of Financial Instruments is increased or reduced by a daily financing fee "swap" throughout the life of the contract. Financing fees are based on prevailing market interest rates, which may vary over time.
- 23.11 By entering into this Agreement, the Client acknowledges and accepts (read and understood) the information under the title "Fee Schedule" as these are posted on the Company's website, in which all related spreads, commission, costs and fees are explained. The Company reserves the right to amend at its discretion all such spreads, commission, costs and fees, and information on such amendments will be made available on the Company's website. It is the Client's responsibility to visit the Company's website and review the "Fee Schedule" during the time of dealing with the Company as well as before placing any orders to the Company.

24. FOREIGN EXCHANGE

- 24.1 The Client shall be responsible for instructing the Company to convert any monies held by the Company for the Client into another currency as the Client may consider necessary to conduct his/her/its business in that currency. The Client understands that a debit balance in one currency cannot be automatically offset against a credit balance in any other currency.
- 24.2 Without prejudice to clause 24.1 above, where the Base Currency of the Client's Account balance is different from the currency of any payment, which may from time to time be due by the Client or on the Client's behalf, we may (and the Client hereby instruct and authorize us to) but shall never be obliged to, convert cash in the Client's Account into the payment currency, and in case of conversion, the Company shall not priorly refer to the Client.
- 24.3 Whenever the Company conducts currency conversions on the Client's instructions, it will do so at such market rate of exchange as may be available to it at the time of conversion which can be found in the Member Area of the Client's Account. All foreign exchange transacted by the Company on the Client's instructions will be carried out in accordance with the standard practices for the relevant currencies unless otherwise agreed. The Client understands that any profit or loss arising out of a fluctuation in the exchange rate affecting currency conversion will be for the Client`s own account and risk.

- 24.4 The Client acknowledges and agrees that where pursuant to Applicable Regulations concerning currency control any cash or investment gains accruing in the Client`s account in a currency other than the Base Currency of the Clients` Account must be converted back into the Base Currency through a foreign exchange transaction in order to be withdrawn, funds may not be withdrawn or otherwise transferred from the Clients` Account in that first currency and must be withdrawn by converting into the Base Currency, and the Client, by accepting these General Terms, hereby instructs and authorizes the Company to convert the currency of such cash or investment gains in the Client`s Account into the Base Currency of the Client`s Account without prior reference to the Client.

25 INDUCEMENTS

- 25.1 The Company, further to the fees and charges paid or provided to or by the Client or other person on behalf of the Client, as stated in paragraph 23 of this Agreement, may pay and/or receive fees/commission to/from third-parties, provided that these benefits are designed to enhance the quality of the offered service to the Client and not impair compliance with the Company`s duty to act in the best interests of the Client.
- 25.2 The Company implemented an Affiliate program on the accumulation of points. To register in an affiliate program, the Client must send his referral link to 5 (five) potential Clients, who following to the referral link to register on the Company`s website and to open the Client account.
An Affiliate program can be cancelled or altered at any time on the unilateral discretion of the Company.
- 25.3 The Company may pay fee/commission to Introducing Brokers, referring agents, or other third parties based on a written agreement and/or the Public Offer Agreement in the form of Appendix 11 to these General Terms. This fee/commission is related to the frequency/volume of transactions performed by the referred Client through the Company. The Company has the obligation and undertakes to disclose to the Client, upon his request, further details regarding the amount of fees/commission or any other remuneration paid by the Company to Introducing Brokers, referring agents, or other third parties.
- 25.4 The Company may also receive fees/commission as well as other remuneration from third parties based on a written agreement. The Company may receive fees/commission from the counterparty through which it executes transactions (if applicable). This fee/commission is related to the frequency/volume of transactions executed through the counterparty. The Company has the obligation and undertakes to disclose to the Client, upon his request, further details regarding the amount of fees/commission or any other remuneration received by the Company from third parties.

26 INTRODUCTION OF CLIENTS FROM INTRODUCING BROKER

- 26.1 The Client may have been recommended by an Introducing Broker as defined in paragraph 2 of this Agreement.
- 26.2 The Company shall not be liable for any type of agreement that may exist between the Client and the Introducing Broker or for any additional costs that might occur as a result of this Agreement.
- 26.3 Based on a written agreement with the Company, the Company may pay a fee or Commission to the Introducing Broker as defined in paragraph 25 of this Agreement.
- 26.4 The Client acknowledges that the Introducing Broker is not a representative of the Company nor is it authorized to provide any guarantees or any promises with respect to the Company or its services.

- 26.5 The Client acknowledges that any such Introducing Broker shall act as an independent intermediary and that no such Introducing Broker shall be authorized to make any representations concerning the Company or its Investment Services.

27 INTEREST

- 27.1 The funds credited to the Client's Account with the Company shall not bear interest.
- 27.2 By accepting this Agreement, the Client gives his/her express consent and waives any of his/her rights to receive any interest earned on his/her funds held on the Company's accounts held with the financial institutions and consents that the Company shall benefit from any such interest earned to cover the registration, general expenses, charges, fees and interest related to the administration and maintenance of the Clients' Account opened with the financial institutions.
- 27.3 In some cases, the Company has the right to charge interest on the funds deposited on the Client's Accounts opened for him by the Company. The Company may pay interest on the balance of funds held in the Client's Account, made available to the Company in accordance with an agreement concluded with the Client. These benefits are designed to enhance the quality of the offered service to the Client and not impair compliance with the Company's duty to act in the best interests of the Client.

28 INVESTOR COMPENSATION FUND

- 28.1 The Company is a member of the Investor Compensation Fund (ICF) for clients of Cypriot Investment Firms (CIFs) and other Investment Firms (IFs) which are not credit institutions. The maximum amount of compensation is € 20,000. For more information regarding the ICF please refer to the "Investor Compensation Fund" document which is available on the Company's website. Further details can be provided on request.
- 28.2 By entering into this Agreement, the Client acknowledges the acceptance (read and understood) of the "Investor Compensation Fund" document which is provided during the registration process, and which is posted on the Company's website.

29 CLIENT COMPLAINT

- 29.1 If the Client has any cause for complaint in relation to any aspect of the Client's relationship with the Company, the complaint should be submitted at complaint@freedomfinance.eu with the subject of e-mail "Client complaint" and managed in accordance with the rules set out in "Complaints Management Policy", posted on the Company's website.
- 29.2 The Client shall complete all fields of the "Client Complaint Form" (Annex A to "Complaints Management Policy")
- 29.3 The complaint must not include:
- a) affective appraisal of the conflict situation;
 - b) offensive language;
 - c) uncontrolled vocabulary.

30 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 30.1 Under Applicable Regulations the Company is required to have arrangements in place to manage conflicts of interest between the Company and its Clients and between Company's different Clients. The Company operates in accordance with a "Conflict of Interest Policy", under which the Company has identified those situations in which there may be a conflict of interest. The Company will make all reasonable efforts to avoid conflicts of interest and when they cannot be avoided the Company shall ensure that Clients are treated fairly and at the highest level of integrity and that their interests are always protected. Company's "Conflict of Interest Policy" is available on Company's website. Further details can be provided on request.

- 30.2 By accepting this Agreement, the Client agrees that the Company may transact business where there may be a conflict of interest without informing the Client of that possibility.
- 30.3 By accepting this Agreement, the Client acknowledges and accepts that the Company acts as market maker and in this context, there may be inherent conflicts of interest.
- 30.4 By accepting this Agreement, the Client acknowledges and accepts that he/she has read, understood and accepted the "Conflict of Interest Policy" which was provided to him/her during the registration process, and which is posted on the Company's website.

31 CLIENT CATEGORIZATION

- 31.1 In relation to products and services provided by the Company, the Company shall categorize the Client, depending on the information that the Client has provided to the Company, as a Retail Client, Professional Client or eligible counterparty (as appropriate). The Company shall notify the Client of such categorization in accordance with "Client Categorization Policy", posted on the Company's website.
- 31.2 Where the Company has categorized the Client as an Eligible Counterparty the Client may request to be treated as the Professional Client or Retail Client. Where the Company has categorized the Client as the Professional Client the Client may request to be treated as a Retail Client. In all cases final decision of changing such a categorization will be at the Company's discretion.
- 31.3 Where the Company has categorized the Client as the Retail Client, which provides the highest level of protection compared with a Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty, the Client may request in writing to be categorized as a Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty but the final decision of changing such a categorization will be at the Company's discretion.
- 31.4 Where the Company has categorized the Client as the Professional Clients, as a security for the leverage provided, the Client agrees to transfer full ownership of funds to the Company for the purpose of securing or covering Clients' present, future, actual, contingent, or prospective obligations (hereafter the "Funds"). The Company may (but will not be required to) deposit to the Company's Omnibus Account with other financial institutions (or other 3rd country broker firms) in order to provide prompt execution of Clients' orders. The Company may, in its sole discretion (i) finance, (ii) lend, (iii) provide credit facility, (iv) provide debt financing, (v) otherwise use and direct the order or manner of Funds being used for financing of other clients of the Company thereof as the Company may determine.
- 31.5 By accepting this Agreement, the Client acknowledges and accepts (read and understood) the "Client Categorization Policy" which is posted on Company's website.

32 ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING PROVISIONS

- 32.1 The Company is obliged to conform to "The Prevention and Suppression of Money Laundering Activities and Terrorist Financing Law of 2007 to 2021" (the AML/CFT Law) as subsequently amended, and to Directive of CySEC for the "Prevention and Suspension of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing" which among others require Investment Firms to verify the identity and place of residence of each Client.
- 32.2 The Company may also request the Client to inform the Company how monies being invested were obtained / accumulated. This process may require sight of certain documents. If the Client provides false or inaccurate information and the Company suspect fraud or money laundering it will record this.
- 32.3 It is Company's policy not to transfer Client's funds to third parties unless a written application and explanation is provided by the Client. The Company will not forward any applications or money to third parties/product providers until Company's verification requirements have been met.

- 32.4 The Company has the right not to carry out orders or instructions received from the Client as long as the Client has not provided the information requested by the Company. The Company takes no responsibility for any delay in investing where money-laundering verification is outstanding.
- 32.5 The Company has the right to terminate the Agreement with the Client immediately and to prohibit the Client from withdrawing any assets if the explanations, concerning Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing issues, provided are inadequate or unsatisfactory.
- 32.6 Where the Client maintains an Omnibus or Correspondent Account, the Company may, to the extent permitted by Applicable Regulations, rely on the AML/CFT, sanctions screening and KYC measures performed by the Client in respect of its Underlying Clients, provided that such measures are equivalent to the requirements applicable to the Company under Applicable Regulations.
- Notwithstanding the above, the Company reserves the right, at any time and at its sole discretion, to request information, documentation and data relating to Underlying Clients, including beneficial ownership, source of funds and transaction details, for the purposes of regulatory compliance, audits or investigations by competent authorities.
- Failure by the Client to provide the requested information or to maintain adequate AML/CFT controls in respect of Underlying Clients shall constitute a material breach of these General Terms, entitling the Company to suspend services or terminate the relationship in accordance with these General Terms and the Appendix 20.
- 32.7 In addition to the obligations under this paragraph 32, the Client (holder of Omnibus or Correspondent Account) shall comply with the Company's Sanctions Compliance Agreement, which sets out specific representations, warranties, undertakings and sanctions-related compliance obligations. Without limitation, the Client confirms that it is not a Sanctioned Person, and has not engaged in any prohibited activities under applicable sanctions laws and regulations, as further specified in the Sanctions Compliance Agreement.

33 SECURITY AND SET-OFF

- 33.1 Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies which the Company may have at law, where the Client does not remit any amounts due hereunder within a reasonable time under this Agreement the Company shall have a lien, right of retention and power of sale and charge (a "Security Interest") over any and all cash, investments documents of title, certificates and other assets, including, but not limited to, the Securities of the Client (the "Security Assets") whether in the sole name of the Client, in name of the Company or associate, agent or nominee of Company held on behalf of the Client, to the extent of and to satisfy any outstanding liability which the Client may have now or at any time towards Company or any associate pursuant to this Agreement.
- 33.2 The Client agrees that it will not withdraw or seek to withdraw any property which is subject to the Security Interest or in any way, encumber, assign, transfer or deal with such property without prior consent of the Company and until any outstanding liabilities towards the Company or its Affiliate at any time are repaid pursuant to this Agreement, the Client relinquishes all rights in the Security Assets.
- 33.3 Company may apply any property which is subject to the Security Interest together with any interest thereon whether or not credited in reduction or discharge of your outstanding liabilities pursuant to this Agreement and for that purpose the Company may realize any such property without further notice and generally exercise any remedies of a secured creditor.
- 33.4 Company may set off any obligation owing by the Client under this Agreement and the Agreement entered into pursuant hereto against any obligation owing by Company to the Client (whether or not in connection with this Agreement and the Agreement), regardless of the currency or place of payment of wither obligation. If such obligation is unascertained or unliquidated, the Company may in good faith estimate the obligation and set off in respect of the estimate, subject to the relevant Party accounting to the other when the obligation is ascertained or liquidated. If the obligations are in different currencies, the Company may convert the obligations at a market rate of exchange in the usual course of its business for the purposes of set-off. The Client shall indemnify the Company for any loss, damage, costs, claims and demands arising as a result of the operation of this set-off.

- 33.5 The rights conferred upon the Company are continuing and outstanding liabilities are not to be considered satisfied by any repayment or partial repayment.
- 33.6 Company may without further notice at any time and in its absolute discretion sell or otherwise dispose of any part of the Security Assets without being under any liability to the Client in respect of the price of any other terms, the Company may debit the Client's Account with the costs of such sale and apply the costs of the proceeds as the Company sees fit. This does not affect the Company's right to enforce payment without resorting to security.
- 33.7 If the proceeds of the realization of the Security Assets are not enough to repay all outstanding liabilities, the Client will repay the amount of the deficiency immediately to the Company.
- 33.8 The Security Interest of the Company is not affected in any way by any time indulgence or relief given by the Company.

34 CUSTODY TERMS

- 34.1 Where the Client's Assets are held or received by the Company, the Company may agree to act as custodian or to arrange for Assets ("Custody Assets") to be held in custody. The Company will open, or cause to be opened, such Accounts as are required to safeguard adequately the Client's ownership rights in those securities and other Assets in the event of the Company's insolvency, and to minimise the chance of loss or diminution of those Assets.
- 34.2 The Client hereby authorises the Company to register or arrange the registration of Custody Assets in any name permitted by the Laws. Normally, Custody Assets will be held in the name of an eligible nominee. However, where the Custody Assets are subject to the Laws or market practice outside the Cyprus and it is in the Client's best interests to do so, the Company may register or record Custody Assets in the name of the custodian or Company name. If Custody Assets are held in Company name or that of a custodian, the Custody Assets may not be segregated or separately identifiable from Company Assets or those of a custodian and, in the event of a default by the Company or the custodian, may be not as well protected from any claims by the Company creditors.
- 34.3 If the Company deposits Custody Assets with a person in a non-EEA state, they will be subject to the law of that state and the Client's rights in relation to those Assets may differ accordingly.
- 34.4 The Company is responsible for the acts of the Company's nominee to the same extent as for the Company's own acts. The Company accepts no liability for the default of any other nominees, custodians or third parties.
- 34.5 Investments registered or recorded in the name of a nominee will be pooled with those of one or more of the Company's other clients. Accordingly, the Client's individual entitlements may not be identifiable by separate certificates, physical documents or entries on the register or equivalent electronic records. In the event of an irrecoverable shortfall following any default or failure by the custodian responsible for pooled investments, the Client may not receive full entitlement and may share in that shortfall pro-rata to original share of the Assets in the pool. When corporate events (such as partial redemptions) affect some but not all of the investments held in a pooled Account, the Company will allocate the investments so affected to particular clients in such fair and equitable manner as the Company consider appropriate (which may without limitation involve pro rata allocation).
- 34.6 The Company will claim all amounts of any dividends, interest, payments or analogous sums to which the Client may be entitled in relation to Custody Assets and of which the Company are notified, but the Company shall not be responsible for claiming any entitlement or benefit the Client may have under any applicable taxation treaty or arrangement.

- 34.7 Where the Company appoint a custodian to hold Custody Assets it may be an Affiliate of the Company.
- 34.8 The Client shall be solely responsible for assessment of risks in relation to the purchase and sale of Securities and any corporate actions performed.
- 34.9 The Company shall make no representations or warranties in relation to the Securities. The Company shall make no representations or warranties in relation to any opinions expressed to the Client concerning the advisability of investing in any securities (whether in writing or verbally) and in connection with any such Securities or with investments in general, except for the provision of general description of the nature and risks associated with financial instruments given to Clients or potential Clients.
- 34.10 Corporate Actions notices may have been obtained from sources which the Company does not control and may have been translated or summarized. Although the Company may believe that such sources to be reliable, the Company have no duty to verify the information contained in such notices nor faithfulness of any translation or summary and therefore does not guarantee its accuracy, completeness or timeliness, and the Company shall not be liable to the Client for any loss that may result from relying on such notices.
- 34.11 The Client is obliged independently to track all corporate actions of the securities' issuers including but not limited to:
- rights issue, preemptive right;
 - bonus issue;
 - stock split;
 - consolidated stock;
 - return of capital of shareholders;
 - date of accrual and repayment of dividends.
- 34.12 (a) In case of participation in a corporate action of the issuer, the Client undertakes to submit to the Company an application for such participation no later than two working days prior to such corporate action.
During participation of the Client in any corporate action of the issuer, the Company is obliged to include such corporate action in the Client's report. Information, reflected in the Client's report, is considered to be correct and proves the actual participation of the Client in the corporate action of the issuer.
- 34.12 b) In case of a mandatory corporate action with choice, the Client explicitly authorizes the Company to choose on behalf of the Client the option that, in the opinion of the Company, would be in the best interest of the Client. If the Company sets up a different default option, Client shall be informed before the internal event deadline.
The circumstances affecting the Company's preference in such cases may include, inter alia:
- availability of trading for the financial instruments, resulting from the corporate action in question,
 - amount of cash offered in exchange for the financial instrument,
 - place of financial instrument's custody and availability for subsequent transfers.
- The Client, however, may still choose an option other than the one preferred by the Company, by submitting a corporate action instruction before the internal corporate action deadline.
The Client is solely responsible for the results of a corporate action event in cases where he/she purchases a financial instrument subject to that event after the Company provides relevant notification and the choices available.
- 34.13 Details of the proxy voting services offered by the Company are available on the Client's request only. Neither the Company nor its sub-custodians or nominees shall execute any form of proxy, or give any consent or to take any actions, in relation to any Securities except upon the Client's instruction.

Until the Company receives the Client's Instructions to the contrary the Company is authorized to and shall:

(a) present, upon notice, all Securities called for redemption or otherwise matured, and all income and interest coupons and other income items which call for payment upon presentation; and

(b) execute certificates and documents as may be required to obtain payment in respect of securities.

34.14 The Company will credit the Client's Account with income and redemption proceeds only after actual receipts.

The Company will credit the Client's Account with income on financial instruments no later than the next business day after the date of their actual receipt.

34.15 Neither we nor the Company's sub-custodians shall be obliged to institute legal proceedings, file a claim or proof of claim in any insolvency proceeding or take any action with respect to collection of income or redemptions proceeds.

34.16 The Company shall use reasonable skill and care in performing the Client's obligations under these General Terms and the Company shall look after Assets with the same degree of skill and care as it do for its own similar assets in the relevant markets. Neither party shall have any liability arising from these General Terms or from any obligations which relate to these General Terms for any indirect, special, punitive, or consequential loss or damage.

34.17 Use of financial instruments held by the Company on behalf of a client:

(1) The Company may enter into arrangements for securities financing transactions in respect of financial instruments held by it on behalf of the Client or may use such financial instruments for its own Account or the Account of another Client of the firm.

(2) The Company may enter into arrangements for securities financing transactions in respect of financial instruments held by it on behalf of the Client in an Omnibus Account held by a third party, or use financial instruments held in such an Account for its own Account or for the Account of another client.

36 CONFIDENTIALITY AND PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

- 36.1 The Client shall promptly provide the Company with any information which the Company may request from the Client to evidence the matters referred to in this Agreement or to comply with any Applicable Regulations or otherwise and shall notify the Company if there is any material change to such information.
- 36.2 It is the Company's policy to take all necessary steps to ensure that personal data held is processed fairly and lawfully in accordance with the Personal Data Law and Data Protection Notice published on Company's website and amended from time to time.
- 36.3 The Company holds personal data relating to the Client in connection with products and services the Client has asked the Company to provide. Except to the extent the Company is required or permitted by law, personal data provided to or obtained by the Company will be used for the purposes of providing the Client with the products and services the Client has requested.
- 36.4 The Company may disclose the information which the Client provides to the Company, together with any other information which may relate to Client's Accounts or to Client's dealings with the Company, to any affiliate or agent, including but not limited to the agent under the Public Offer Agreement as set out in Appendix 11 to these General Terms, or its Auditors, or in accordance with any Applicable Regulations, or where necessary for the performance of Company's obligations to the Client, or for marketing purposes.
- 36.5 Subject to paragraph 36.4 above, the Company will not, and it will ensure that its affiliates and agents will not, otherwise disclose the information to any other person, unless the Company is permitted to do so by law, and the Company will treat all information which it holds about the Client as private and confidential, even if the Client is no longer Company's client. The Company will not disclose any information which it holds about the Client unless the Company is required to do so by any Applicable Regulations, or there is a duty to the public to disclose it, or Company's interests require disclosure, or at Client's request or with Client's consent.
- 36.6 The Client agrees that the Company and its other affiliates of it can, among others:
- i. hold and process by computer or otherwise any information the Company holds about the Client;
 - ii. use such information to administer and operate Client's Account, to provide any Service to the Client, to monitor and analyze the conduct of Client Account, to assess any credit limit or other credit decision, to assess the interest rate, fees and other charges to be applied to Client Account, to enable the Company to carry out statistical and other analysis and to prevent fraud;
 - iii. disclose such information to Company's affiliates;
 - iv. disclose such information to those who provide services to the Company or act as Company's agents, to any person to whom the Company transfers or proposes to transfer any of Company's rights and duties hereunder, or to licensed credit reference agencies or other organizations which help the Company and others to make credit decisions and prevent fraud, or in the course of carrying out identity, fraud prevention or credit control checks;
 - v. analyze and use any information the Company holds about the Client to give to the Client information about products and Services which the Company believes may be of interest to the Client. If the Client does not wish to receive such information, please let the Company know.
- 36.7 The Client agrees that the Company may also transfer information it holds about the Client to any country, including countries outside the European Economic Area, which may not have data protection legislation, for any of the purposes described in this section, and according to the provisions of Law providing for the Protection of Natural Persons with regard to the Processing of Personal Data and for the Free Movement of such Data of 2018 (Law 125(I)/2018).

FREEDOM 24

- 36.8 If the Client is an individual, the Company is obliged to supply the Client, on request, with a copy of personal data which it holds about the Client (if any), provided that the Client pays a fee.
- 36.9 By entering this Agreement, the Client acknowledges and agrees that all communication between the Client and the Company may be recorded and that the Company may deliver copies of transcripts of such recordings to any court, regulatory or government authority.
- 36.10 The property of all recordings shall be and remain the sole properties of the Company and will be accepted by the Client as conclusive evidence in case of any legal dispute and/or complaint.
- 36.11 The Company will treat the information that holds about the Client in strict confidentiality and will not use it outside the scope for the provision of Services described in this Agreement. Information of a confidential nature will be treated as such provided that such information is not already in the public domain or in the legal possession of the Company and was not subject to an obligation of confidence or non-disclosure at the moment of its receipt by the Company.
- 36.12 Without the others consent, neither the Company or the Client shall disclose or use for any purpose except as contemplated, the terms of this Agreement or the relevant Additional Agreement any information disclosed to them by the disclosing party in connection with the Company, except to the extent that such information is:
- i. already available in the public domain, other than as a result of breach of an Agreement between the Client and the Company;
 - ii. already known to the receiving party at the time of disclosure;
 - iii. required to be disclosed under Applicable Regulations or court order; or
 - iv. requested by a Regulator.
- 36.13 The Company will only disclose information of confidential nature only in the following cases:
- i. whenever it is required to do so by any regulatory and/or enforcement authorities or bodies that have jurisdiction over the Company;
 - ii. with the purpose of preventing fraud, illegal activity, anti-money laundering or terrorist financing
 - iii. for the purposes related to credit or identification enquiries or assessments;
 - iv. to judicial proceedings between the Company and the Client;
 - v. to any of the Company's consultants, lawyers or auditors provided that in each case these will be informed about the confidential nature of such information and commit to the confidentiality herein obligations as well;
 - vi. At the Client request or with the Client's consent.
- Such disclosure shall occur on a "need to know" basis, unless otherwise instructed. Under such circumstances, the Company shall expressly inform the third party regarding the confidential nature of the information.
- 36.14 Before providing the Company with any information relating to identifiable living individuals in connection with this Agreement the Client should ensure that those individuals have consented to him/her providing the Company with their information and are aware: of Company's identity; that the Company may use their information to develop its services to clients and protect its interests; that the Company may record or monitor electronic communications between the Client and the Company for compliance purposes; that the Company and other members of its group may use their information for marketing purposes (including letter, telephone, email or other methods) to inform the Client or them about services which may be of interest to the Client or them; that this may involve disclosure of their information and transfer of their information to any country, including countries outside the European Economic Area which may not have strong data protection laws or where authorities may have access to their information; however, if the Company does transfer personal data to countries outside the European Economic Area, the Company will make sure that the same level of protection as it is required to provide in the European Economic Area is applied to their personal data; that the Company may retain their information after Client's cease to be a client, for as long as permitted for legal, regulatory, fraud and legitimate business purposes.

- 36.15 The Client will not, without Company's prior written consent in each instance, (a) use in advertising, publicity, monitoring or other promotional materials or activities, the name, trade name, trademark, trade advice, service mark, symbol or any abbreviations, contraction or simulation thereof, of the Company or Company's Affiliates or their respective partners or employees, or (b) represent directly or indirectly that any product or any service provided by the Client has been approved or endorsed by the Company. This section shall survive termination of this Agreement.
- 36.16 The Client accepts and concerns that the Company may, from time to time, engage companies for statistical purposes in order to improve Company's promotional and marketing strategies. As a result, some or all of the Client's personal data may be disclosed on an anonymous and aggregated basis only.
- 36.17 By entering this Agreement, the Client provides consent to the Company to make direct contact with the Client, from time to time, by email or otherwise. The Client agrees to such communications and agrees that the Client will not consider such communication a breach of any of the Client's rights under any relevant data protection and/or privacy regulations.
- 36.18 The Client acknowledges and accepts (read and understood) the Company's "Privacy Policy" which is posted on the Company's website.

37 AMENDMENTS

- 37.1 This Agreement may be amended. Changes are usually made under the following circumstances:
- if such an amendment is necessary pursuant to any amendment in the applicable law or as consequent to the publication of new regulations acts;
 - another case.
- 37.2 Amendments to this Agreement shall enter into force:
- if changes are provided as per paragraph 37.1\(i\) – 1 (one) business day after the official publication;
 - if changes are as per paragraph 37.1\(ii\) – 5 (five) business days after the official publication.
- The Company shall notify the Client of the relevant amendment either in writing and/or by email or through the Company's website.

38 TERMINATION AND DEFAULT

- 38.1 The right of withdrawal provided by the Distance Marketing of Consumer Financial Services Law № 242 (I)/2004 shall not apply to the services provided by the Company to the Client under these General Terms.
- 38.2(1) The Client can terminate this Agreement by giving written notice of termination to the Company in the manner provided for in clause 35.1.
The Company can terminate this Agreement by giving written notice of termination to the Client in the manner provided for in clause 35.4.

Any termination given by us may take effect immediately or on such later date as the notice may specify. Termination will be without prejudice to Transactions already initiated. In the case of such termination, all pending Transactions on behalf of the Client shall be cancelled and any Open Positions shall be closed.

You are required to provide us with outward transfer instructions as soon as reasonably practicable and where no such instructions have been received on or before the termination date, you will be subject to a separate fee accruing on your Assets up to the date of withdrawal. You understand that we will not be able to return account balances to you unless moneys held in your cash account(s) are sufficient to make a transfer and cover related expenses. You acknowledge that no payment or transfer may be made unless all the necessary anti-money laundering checks have been completed. You understand that the payment or transfer will only be made to an account in your name. You agree that no interest will be paid to you on moneys or securities held by us for you on or after the termination date.

You understand and agree that where no instructions have been received for transferring your Securities out on or before the termination date, we may (and you hereby irrevocably and unconditionally authorise us to) without prior notice to you or prior authorisation from any court, sell all Securities, which we are holding on your behalf and transfer the proceeds to: (i) such account in your name as you have most recently notified to us in your account documentation, or (ii) to an Unclaimed Account.

Your Account with the Company will be closed and your relationship with us terminated.

You will receive a confirmation letter about your Account closure, with a withdrawal form for claiming the Assets from an Unclaimed Account, and a full brokerage report covering activity from the date of your Account opening till the date of Account closure for your records.

Any securities that cannot be sold will be transferred to an Unclaimed Account. Any cash balances unrelated to the sale of Securities will also be transferred to an Unclaimed Account.

For the avoidance of doubt, any frozen Assets in your Account with us, will NOT be transferred to an Unclaimed Account. The return of these Assets will only be possible once the corresponding restrictions have been lifted.

And will not pay any interest on the credit balance.

We will only process mandatory corporate action events on the Securities kept on an Unclaimed Account.

You will not be able to receive broker reports in respect of the Assets kept on an Unclaimed Account. Analytical statement, however, may be provided on request for a separate fee.

If you wish to withdraw your Assets from an Unclaimed Account in the future, a separate fee will be charged, based on the actual costs to us.

38.2.(2) We reserve the right to charge a fee in relation to Accounts in respect of which we have not received any instructions from you or on your behalf for at least 1 year. Such fee will be notified to you at your last known address. Pursuant to paragraph 23.4, such fee may be deducted from any funds held by us on your behalf. In the event that insufficient funds are available in such accounts, you agree that we may in such manner and at such time or times as we in our sole discretion see fit, liquidate any Securities, as we in our sole discretion may select, that we hold for you in order to deduct the amount of the fee from the proceeds.

38.2. (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses 38.2.(1) and 38.2.(2), in the event that upon termination of this Agreement the Client's total Account balance (including any cash and/or proceeds from liquidation of Securities) does not exceed EUR/USD 100 (or equivalent in other currencies), the Client agrees that such cash balance may be charged as a fee for account maintenance, administration, and closure, and the Company shall be entitled to deduct it in full.

Such deduction shall be without prejudice to the Company's rights under this Agreement, and the Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that no further claims in respect of such balance shall arise against the Company.

For the avoidance of doubt, all other provisions of clause 38, including but not limited to procedures relating to termination, withdrawal Instructions, anti-money laundering checks, and handling of Assets, shall continue to apply.

- 38.3 Upon termination of this Agreement the Company will be entitled, without prior notice to the Client, to cease the access of the Client to the Company's Electronic Trading Platform.
- 38.4 The Company may terminate this Agreement immediately in the following events of default:
- i. death of the Client;
 - ii. if any application is made or any order is issued, or a meeting is convened, or a resolution is approved or any measures of bankruptcy or winding up of the Client are taken;
 - iii. such termination is required by any competent regulatory authority or body or court of law;
 - iv. the Client violates any provision of this Agreement or any other Agreement and in the Company's opinion the Agreement cannot be implemented;
 - v. the Client or any of its Underlying Clients is reasonably suspected of engaging in fraud, market abuse, money laundering, terrorist financing or sanctions breaches;
 - vi. the Company has grounds to believe that the Client's trading activity affects in any manner the reliability and/or smooth operation and/or orderly of the Company's Electronic Trading Platform;
